

Laflin Library Summer 2007 Reading Program

The Laflin Public Library recently ended their 2007 Summer Reading Program with a cookout on the Laflin Borough Playground for the children who participated. Reading certificates and prizes were awarded to each child. The Red Robin made an appearance and the children received Red Robin Dollars.

The children and young adults had done an outstanding job this year by reading a total of 1,841 books. Congratulations to everyone! The top reader this year was Amy Farthing who read a total of 191 books. The top readers in each age category was Carissa Benderavich and Cassie Benderavich, ages 3 and 5, Amy Farthing age 7, and Connor Thole, age 9.
